

A Brief Introduction of Clubs at NADT

A range of indoor and outdoor activities are available to the Officer Trainees at NADT. These activities are organized through various Clubs / Societies functioning in the Academy. The clubs and societies are run by the elected representatives of the Officer Trainees called as Coordinators under the over-all guidance of the Course Team and other associated faculty members. The activities of the clubs and societies provide an excellent medium to the Officer Trainees for self-expression and self-development. These activities not only enrich the Academy's campus life but also activate every Officer Trainee's desire for creative expression. All Officer Trainees are expected to actively participate and make full use of the facilities according to their tastes and dispositions. The Academy places great emphasis on organizing and participating in these activities and they form an important basis for the end-of-the-course Pr. Director General's assessment. The bye laws of some of the clubs and societies are available at the Academy's website. Various Clubs functioning in the Academy at present are:

- Adventure Club
- Astronomy Club
- Cultural Club
